Ennobling Precepts of a Hebrew Moralist.

Following is a translation made for the Sacramento Bee by a gentleman of that city of some of the golden precepts of Rokeach, a famous Hebrew moralist of the 13th century, which are worthy of study and remembrance by all, whether Christian, Jew, or Mohammedan:

Place thy trust in God—thy company with those who fear him.

Honor thy parents; make peace when thou canst among people; lead them gently in the good path.

Greet every man pleasantly, speak truth only, forget not modesty, and in thy eating be moderate.

Avoid, as much as may be, bad men, men of persistent, angry feeling, fools; thou cans't get nothing from their company but shame.

What a man spends on the poor when he is in full health is gold; when sick, silver; what he provides for them in his last will, copper.

There is no skill or cleverness to be compared to that which aveids temptation; there is no force, no strength, which can equal piety.

Above all earthly things inculcate a habit of cleanliness; the body, above and beyond all, made in the image of God, ought never to be defiled by dirt.

Unmeasured drinking of wine brings poverty, shame, quarrels; leads to calumnious talk, unchastity, murder, to the loss of freedom, of honor, of industry.

All honor to him who thinks continuously, and with an anxious heart, of his maker; who prays, reads, learns, and all these with a passionate yearning for his Maker's grace.

Cherish a good heart when thou findest it in any one; hate, for thou mayest hate it, the haughtiness of the overbearing man, and keep the boaster at a distance.

No crown carries such royalty with it as doth humility; no monument gives such glory as an unsullied name; no worldly gain can equal that which comes from observing God's laws.

But if worldly wealth be lent to thee, exalt not thyself above thy poor brother; for both of ye came naked into the world, and both of you will surely have to sleep at last together in the dust.

Such let thy dealings be that a blush need never visit thy cheek; be sternly dumb to the voice of passion; commit no sin, saying to thyself that thou wilt repent and make atonement at a future time.

Spend not thy time among people who speak ill of their brother men; be not as the fly that is always seeking sick and wounded places; and tell not of the faults and failings of those about thee.

Prefer the possession of one thing to the mere expectation of two; a small certainty is better than a large adventure. Be a servant among noble-minded men, rather than a chieftain over the vulgar.

Let no oath ever pass thy lips; play not the haughty aristocrat in thine heart; follow not the desire of the eyes, and banish carefully all guile from thy soul, all unseemly self assertion from thy bearing and thy temper.

The highest sacrifice is a broken and contrite heart; the highest wisdom is that which is found in the law; the noblest of all ornaments is modesty; the most beautiful of all things man can do is to forgive wrong.

Never speak mere empty words; enter into strife with no man; place no reliance on men of mocking lips; mingle not with evil men; cherish no too good opinion of thyself, but lend thine ear to remonstrance and reproof.

If thy means in life be measured out scantily to thee, remember that thou hast to be thankful and grateful even for the mere privilege of breathing, and that thou must take up that suffering as a task of thy piety, and a preparation for better things.

Be not angry or unkind to any one for trifles, lest thou make thyself enemies unnecessarily. Strive not to screw out the secrets of others; do not refuse things from mere obstinacy to thy fellow citizen; rather put thy will below their wishes.

Do not inquire too earnestly concerning the Creator, or seek by mere questioning to know the origin of things, but see that God is not far from thy thoughts; forget not what he has done for thee, and let not strange gods, let not thine own sensuous nature, hold dominion over thy life.

The proud cedar is felled while the humble shrub is left alone; fire ascends and goes out, water descends and is not lost. Exalt not thyself because of beauty and wealth over thy neighbor and brother; for, so doing, thou givest provender to loathsome hate, and the poor man whom thou hast looked down on, may bear away the palm of victory over thee.

Wholly incompatible with a humble spirit is loud and passionate talk, falsehood, uttering of oaths, mockery, unrestrained desire. My son, shake off all haughtiness of mind and cling to humility; cease to exalt thyself in thine own estimation, and be of lowly mind and temper; remember whence thou camest, and whither thou goest; repent, atone, and serve thy Maker; free thyself from passion and desire before thy light is quenched, before thy soul is required of thee, before the book of thy soul is opened for judgment.

The acme of all thought, the highest of all merit is love for God; the soul, made holy by such yearning for the source from whence it sprang, is destined to enter the appointed place where life grows and shines with a fire that shall never be quenched.

NO GREAT SUCCESS WITHOUT ADVERTISING.—The historian who writes the commercial history of the nineteenth century, must devote a chapter of his work to the mighty influence of the modern newspaper upon the worlds business affairs. An investigation, we think, will reveal the fact that all ancient methods of trade have been revolutionized during the past fifty years, and that the modern newspaper has done it. "Printers' ink" is as necessary nowadays to the successful business man as his salesmen are, and the measure of his success is exactly equal to the extent of his advertising. The day is past when the merchant can sit in his store and expect that his signs will suffice to attract business to his establishment. We do not need to argue this point with reflecting men. Illustrations of that fact may be found in every city and every village in the land.

Another Angel Falls.

William J. Purman, Representative in Congress from Florida, is a Republican. Last November he was re-elected. Mr. Purman arose in the House of Representatives on the 13th instant and discoursed as follows:

"I find now ample opportunity to state, from my own knowledge, the true condition of the Presidential vote of my State, concerning which so so much is involved in misunderstanding and controversy. The Republican party in our State, with all its dissensions healed, with the whole machinery of the State Government in its hands, went into the last campaign determined to win if our own resources and efforts, coupled with the most heroic devotion on the part of our voters, could achieve such an end. Free speech and free locomotion were used to the fullest extent by the speakers and managers on both sides, and at no time during the campaign, from any portion of the State, came up any cry of intimidation. With one or two minor exceptions, it was without exception the most peaceable election ever had in the State, and not one case of violence or disturbance on election day has come to my knowledge. It seemed the peculiar privilege of the Republicans to win, under all these advantageous circumstances; but it is a fact, which I cannot stand upon this floor and deny, and which every man, woman and child in my State knows, that Florida was lost to the to the Republican party in the late election, and that the Democratic Governor and the Tilden Electors were truly elected. I make this declaration now under the most solemn sense of public duty, and from an irresistible feeling of obligation to the people of my State, who have a right to expect that however partisan their Representative may be in his political faith, he should at least, on questions of public fact, be an honest man. But, sir, I would not be understood, in making this declaration, as laying claim to any unusual amount of honesty or conscience, but I only assert my knowledge of the facts. I love the principles of the Republican party, and for their sake have been singed by the fires of martyrdom, and I believe in the ultimate triumph of its regenerating mission; but I cannot return to my State and look my constituents in the face if, standing upon this floor, and in the presence of the American people, anxious and entitled to know the whole truth concerning this dangerous Presidential issue, I should shrink from the responsibility of doing justice to my State, and defending her honest political victory against the wilful perversion of a bold, dishonest and unscrupulous State Canvassing Board. Purman described at length the manner in which the canvass was conducted, and charged that Gowgill, a member of the Board, was personally consulted upon the fact of fraud having been committed, and that he gave his assurance in one instance that if it were plausibly presented before them for adjudication it should suffer no scrutiny or discount at his hands.

WHAT TOMATO LEAVES WILL DO.—"I planted an orchard," writes M. Siroy, of the Society of Horticulture of Valparaiso, "and the trees grew well and strongly. They had but just commenced to bud when they were invaded by the curculio (pulgan), which insect was followed, as frequently happens, by ants. Having cultivated some tomatoes, the idea occurred to me that by placing some of the leaves around the trunks and branches of the peach trees I might preserve them from the rays of the sun, which were very powerful. My surprise was very great upon the following day to find the trees entirely free from their enemies, not one remaining, except here and there, where a curled leaf prevented the tomato from exercising its influence. These leaves I carefully unrolled, placing upon them fresh ones from the tomato vine, with the result of banishing the last insect, and enabling the tree to grow in luxuriance. Wishing to carry still further my experiment, I steeped in water some fresh leaves of the tomato, and sprinkled this infusion over plants, roses and oranges. In two days these were also free from innumerable insects which covered them, and I felt sure that, had I used the same means with my melon patch, I should have met with the same result. I therefore deem it a duty I owe to the Society of Horticulture to make known this singular and useful property of the tomato leaves, which I discovered by the merest accident."

HOW DAVID WAS MADE KING.—In a country a great way off, there once lived a man whose name was Jesse; he had eight boys, and I don't know how many girls. One day a very old man, a prophet, Samuel by name, came to see Jesse's sons, for God had told him he must anoint one of them to be King of Israel. Anoint meant to put holy oil on his head and bless him.

Jesse called his oldest son, a tall handsome man, and Samuel thought at once, "That's the one God has chosen to be King." But God knew that he was not the best man, so he told Samuel, "No, he is not the one." Jesse called the next one, but Samuel said, "No, not that one either."

Then Jesse called the next, and so on till Samuel had seen seven of them, but still he said, "No, God has not chosen him."

Then he asked Jesse, "Are these all your sons?" Jesse said, "Why no, there is one more, but he is the youngest, and he is away off taking care of the sheep." But Samuel said, "Send and call him here, for I cannot sit down to dinner till he is here." So Jesse sent a man to tell David, for that was his name, to come in. I don't know what he thought, but he came at once, to see what his father wanted.

He was not as tall as the other sons, for he was only a boy yet, but he had a rosy, pleasant face, and God had given him a good heart, so God told Samuel, "this is the one." Samuel annointed him King over Israel.

A MODEST BEHAVIOR.—If you would add lustre to character, study a modest behavior. To excel in anything valuable is great, but to be above conceit on account of one's accomplishments is greater. Consider, if you have natural gifts, you owe them to the divine bounty. If you have improved your understanding and studied virture, you have only done your duty, and thus there seems little reason for vanity.

Home Talk.

[From the Sacramento Bee, Feb. 15.]

A passing word about Sacramento will not be amiss just now, as nature has clothed her in most beautiful robes of nature's own color, and as the hand of man has progressed well in the work of assisting the great unseen power in making this fair young city one of the most presentable in the world—and why not the most presentable? Our climate cannot be equaled, not even in sunny Italy; our society cannot be surpassed for sociability, good breeding and modest virtues anywhere; our children are healthy, joyous and numerous, and we have elegant and ample school accomodations for them; our soil is productive, and flowers and trees which beautify and adorn lovely homes spring up as if by magic under nature's tender nursing; business is good and our people generally are happy and prosperous. Therefore do we say this valley city, the center of agriculture, manufacturing, close to the great mining region, is particularly blessed. And the people are fully alive to our situation, facilities and prospects. Perhaps no year for six or eight past shall be entitled to more or finer building improvements in this city than 1877. Men who have accumulated wealth elsewhere are beginning to recognize the fact that here in Sacramento they may best enjoy that wealth and educate their children to a degree befitting their station. The mechanic will here find employment which will enable him to build a modest but neat home for him and his family. Manufacturing interests already established bid fair to receive new life and vigor and gain trade which will enable all to increase their facilities and give employment to a greater number of hands. New industries are promised and bid fair to be established. Perhaps the foundation of a great central depot may be laid before the year closes, and with its completion the foul waters of the slough will be a thing of the past. Our foundries, woolen mills, carriage factories, pail and furniture factories, potteries and leading firms generally who have goods to dispose of do not wait for customers to come as in days gone by, but buckle on their harness and send trustworthy, energetic men all over the State, and into Neveda and Oregon to seek trade, and we are pleased to note their efforts are well rewarded. Our people are looking towards the abolition of tolls on bridges over which customers must pass to reach the city; and many other matters of general good to this community are being discussed. Therefore, are this people content with what they have and happy in contemplation of what the future will bring forth.

LENTEN REGULATIONS.—Archbishop Alemany of San Francisco has issued the following rules to be observed during Lent within his Diocese:

1. All the week days of Lent, from Ash-Wednesday till Easter Sunday, are fast days of precept, on one meal, with the allowance of a moderate collation.

2. The precept of fasting implies the abstinence from the use of all flesh meat. But, by dispensation, the use of flesh meat is allowed in this diocese during Lent, except on the following days to wit: The Wednesdays and Fridays, the Ember days, and the Thursday and Saturday of the Holy Week; on which days there is no leave to eat flesh meat, except by dispensation from the respective pastors, which they are hereby authorized to grant in case of necessity, to be judged by them. All Saturdays are also days of abstinence, but not of obligation.

3. The promiscuous use of fish and flesh meat at the same meal is forbidden in Lent, even on Sundays.

4. Some prayers, at option, are recommended during Lent, particularly on those days in which flesh meat is used.

5. Lent being a penitential time, the pastors are requested to lay before the faithful the importance of Christian mortification, and also the grevious obligation of complying with the Easter duty, which may be fulfilled from the first Sunday of Lent; they will frequently and earnestly impress upon their flocks the necessity of attending to the salvation of their souls, and they will exhort them to the faithful discharge of their Christian duties, the only thing that can secure to us the everlasting happiness of heaven. For this purpose they will hold religious exercises in their churches several times a week, according to what their prudence may deem expedient.

ECONOMY IN DRESS.—Merchants complain that owing to the hard times, wealthy people do not spend as much money as they might. "It is wonderful," said the head of one of our large city dry goods houses a few months since, "the difference between the accounts of the rich people now and three years ago. Then there were silks, laces, and expensive goods of all sorts to their debit; now muslin, flannel, table linen, the sheer necessities of comfortable life are all the most of them indulge in." Velvets are brushed and steamed, and come out as good as new; silks are dyed, mingled with other silks, and made up into very stylish suits. This method runs into all the cheaper styles of dress, and is bringing to light many a serviceable fabric that has lain in drawers and chests for years unused. There is one economy in dress we have yet to learn, and that is the time bestowed on making up stylish suits. If the hours devoting to ruffling and knife-plaiting were divided, and half of them given to the mastery of the culinary art, to the home culture of the children, to deeds of charity, would there not be a clear gain in the sum total of good done? Perhaps that, too, will come about in time.

HAIRY.—Many of our fair friends may not know whence comes the magnificent back-hair which so greatly helps to make them so stunning. The countries supplying the great bulk of the hair of commerce are Normandy and Picardy in France, Bohemia, Voralberg and Tyrol. French hair ranks first, then Swedish and German, and lastly Italian and English. Hair purchasers generally hunt in couples, the typical old woman and the decoy. They claim that the more stupid the population of a district, the finer will be the hair of the women. Cutting the hair right off spoils the market, so it is only thinned out at intervals. Thus several crops are gathered from one head.

The Great Mexican Railway.

The building of the great railway from Vera Cruz to the city of Mexico was a colossal feat in constructive engineering. The intervening country was superbly beautiful, and crossed at right angles by the great Sierra range, through which is one continued panorama of beauty.

The railway is 266½ miles long, has 18 lengthy tunnels and many fine iron bridges. It cost the grand sum of $40,000,000 Mexican dollars, and is undoubtedly the finest constructed railway on the American continent.

The first forty miles is straight, and on a gentle grade, rising slowly from the sea; then for a distance of 75 miles it crosses over three distinct ranges of mountains, each of which stand up like a colossal stair-case. This section is very crooked. Winding around the numerous canyons in the mountains, the train runs for many miles over the brink of precipices, almost perpindicular 3,000 feet. The grades are 400 feet per mile; and the ordinary locomotive finds great difficulty in crossing encumbered. But the Company use an English engine, which carries ten loaded cars with ease. It is a double engine, or two engines conected with their heads turned together, and 30-inch drivers.

At the west end of the division, which is at Boca del Monte, the road bed reaches the greatest elevation, which is 13,000 feet above the sea at Vera Cruz; from there it gradually declines through a continuation of broad valleys to the city of Mexico. These valleys are from three to twenty miles wide, entirely hemmed in with tall mountains. Every foot is irrigated, and in a thorough state of cultivation.—St. Louis Railroad Journal.

Eucalyptus Tea.

The editor of the San Diego World gives the following personal experience: Some months ago the writer read in an English paper of a discovery by some physicians in Europe of the value of eucalyptus in early stages of cold and fever. Some weeks ago being taken with a severe cold, we made a decoction of eucalyptus leaves and drank it on retiring to bed. The result was that it brought on a gentle perspiration and sleep, and in the morning all symptoms of the cold had disappeared. A fortnight ago a friend of ours was seized with cold and fever. He had aching pains all over his body, and to every appearance bade fair to be confined to his bed. We thought of the eucalyptus and told him of our experience. He went home and had a strong decoction made and drank freely on going to bed. It worked like a charm, for he was in perfect health the next morning, only a little weak from profuse perspiration. His wife was suffering from cold at the time, and tried the remedy and found it a perfect cure. One instance more in our own case. Last night just before retiring to bed, we were seized with a violent chill, accompanied with pains in the back and legs. This was followed by a little fever. These symptoms had presaged a very serious illness a year or two ago, and we thought ominously on the subject. We sent out to the street to have some leaves plucked and our favorite tea was made at once. We drank about a pint, and soon fell asleep, and to the credit of the eucalyptus, we say we are as well as we ever were in our life. Our opinion is that the tea is perfectly harmless to drink even in large quantities. For a medicine tree we can recommend everybody to grow eucalyptus.

STATE MUSICAL ASSOCIATION.—At a meeting held in Bancroft's music room for the purpose of forming a State musical Association, and holding musical conventions in this city, annually, in September (as is the custom in the Atlantic States), it was voted to proceed to form such an association, and that all the musical secities of this State, Oregon, and Neveda, as well as all singers, whether members of societies or not, be invited to join, so that a grand singers' jubilee may be had. The Metropolitan Temple, now being built at the corner of Fifth and Jessie streets, is being prepared with special reference to its adaptability for concerts and conventions, having a seating capacity of 2,500. It will have one of the largest organs in the city, now being built by Mr. Bergstrom. It is expected to hold the first convention on the first Tuesday of next September and three or more days. Classes will be formed for instruction in harmony, church and secular music. It is proposed to give three concerts during the term, besides musical, organ and glee matinees. Arrangements are expected to be made with railroads and steamers for free return tickets. Miss Thursby, Mr. Whitney and other celebrated singers may be expected. The best musical talent of this city is promised to make the effort a success. The officers of the Association elected at the meeting are: Professer John Morgan, President; A. D. Hatch, Secretary; Mrs. John Trebane, Corresponding Secretary: John White, Treasurer; Professor Washington Elliot, Samuel D. Mayer, Professor R. Herold and Mrs. H. B. Howell, Directors.—Post.

HOW A FORGER PAID WILLIAM M. EVARTS.—By the Utica Herald we are told the most clever forgeries which had been ever known, up to the time of their occurrence, were those of Monroe Edwards. This man really possessed commercial genius, and had he devoted himself to legitimate business he would have become a merchant prince. He preferred fraud, however, and bore the consequences. It is thirty-four years since Monroe Edwards was convicted. William M. Evarts was then a young lawyer, and was retained in the defence. It is said he got his pay in a forged check. Edwards had great personal elegance and grace of manners. He went to England with forged letters from Daniel Webster, travelling as John P. Caldwell. The aristocracy welcomed him to their festal halls, and he actually borrowed $1,000 to return with. In this city he forged $25,000 on Brown Brothers & Co., and by three clever forgeries in Philadelphia he raised $66,000 more. His trial in this city was the occasion of James Watson Webb's duel with Tom Marshall. The latter was one of the counsel for the defence, and made severe reflections on Webb, who challenged him and got a bullet in his leg. Edwards was sentenced to Sing Sing for five years, and died before the expiration of the sentence.

A Striking Confession.

We have read with lively interest the heart and life revealings of Mrs. Fanny Kemble Butler in successive numbers of the Atlantic Monthly. The following is conclusive testimony as to the undesirableness of an actress' profession, even at its best:

"I devoted myself to a vocation which I never liked or honored, and about the very nature of which I have never been able to come to any decided opinion. It is in vain that the undouted specific gifts of great actors and actresses suggest that all gifts are given for rightful exercise, and not suppression; in vain that Shakspeare's plays urge their imperative claim to the most perfect illustration they can receive from histrionic interpretation; a business which is intense excitement and fictitious emotion seems to be unworthy of a man; a business which is public exhibition, unworthy of a woman.

"At four different periods of my life I have been constrained by circumstances to maintain myself by the exercise of my dramatic faculty; latterly, it is true, in a less painful and distasteful manner, by reading instead of acting. But I have never, I trust, been ungrateful for the power of thus helping myself and others, or forgetful of the obligation I was under to do my appointed work conscientiously in every respect, or unmindful of the precious good regard of so many kind hearts that it has won for me. Though I have never lost one iota of my own delight in the act of rendering Shakspeare's creations; yet neither have I ever presented myself before an audience without a shrinking feeling of reluctance, or withdrawn from their presence without thinking the excitement I had undergone unhealthy, and the personal exhibition odious."

A Cure for Diphtheria.

A correspondent of a Victoria paper writes: Should you or any of your family be attacked with diphtheria do not be alarmed, as it is easily and spedily cured without a doctor. When it was raging in England a few years ago I accompanied doctor Field on his rounds to witness the so-called "wonderful cures" he performed, while the patients of others were dropping on all sides. The remedy to be so rapid must be simple. All he took with him was powder of sulphur and a quill, and with these he cured every patient without exception. He put a teaspoonful of flour of brimstone into a wine glass of water, and stirred it with his finger instead of a spoon, as the sulphur does not amalgamate with water. When the sulphur was well mixed he gave it as a gargle, and in ten minutes the patient was out of danger. Brimstone kills every species of fungus in man, beast or plant in a few minutes. Instead of spitting out the gargle, he recommended the swallowing of it. In extreme cases, in which he had been call just in the nick of time, when the fungus was too nearly closed to allow the gargling, he blew the sulphur through a quill into the throat, and after the fungus had shrunk to allow it, then the gargling. He never lost a patient from diphtheria. If a patient cannot gargle, take a live coal, put it on a shovel, and sprinkle a spoonful or two of flour of brimstone at a time upon it, let the sufferer inhale it, and immediately the fungus will die. If plentifully used, the whole room may be filled to suffocation, the patient can walk about in it, inhaling the fumes with doors and windows shut. The mode of fumigating a room with sulphur has often cured most violent attacks of cold in the head, chest, etc., at a time, and is recommended in cases of consumption and asthma.

A GRAND SEND-OFF.—That was a grand send-off which Governor Garland received, when he was elected to the Senate by the Arkansas Legislature, receiving a majority of the votes of his political opponents. The Republican members who had voted for him addressed a letter to him, setting forth the reasons that had prompted their action, and in the letter occurred the following language:

"You found the State Government in confusion. You have restored peace. You vouchsafed and gave protection to all, regardless of condition. You found financial prostration. You have built up the State's credit. You found the State looked upon with distrust. You have placed her name high on the roll of States for integrity and honor. In fact, you have fully shown, as we believe, as Arkansas' favorite son, that you knew her wants, and that you have as fully anticipated them in their fruition."

Governor Garland was the first real Democratic Governor that Arkansas had known since the close of the war—the first who had been really elected by the people. The beginning of his term of office marked the regeneration of the State, its rescue from carpet-bag rule. His Administration was entirely and distinctly a Democratic Administration. It inaugurated an era of peace, prosperity, justice and harmony. At its close he received the greatest compliment that could be paid to a retiring Governor—the unanimous endorsement of his own party and the endorsement of a majority of his political opponents. Who shall say that Democratic rule has not been a good thing for Arkansas.—S. F. Examiner.

BLUE GLASS CURE.—The theory advanced by Gen. Pleasanton and which has been demonstrated by various tests elswhere, has been put into practice in San José, with the most gratifying results. Mr. Booksin, residing on second street near Reed, has for some time been prostrated by a nervous complaint. He had been confined to his bed for several weeks and the physicians seemed to give him no relief. He heard of the blue glass excitement and had his windows arranged according to the theory, under the advice of one of his medical attendants Dr. Sara Brown. He seemed to experience almost immediate relief and on last Sunday was recovered sufficiently to ride out. He thinks that the blue glass will effect a permanent cure. A number of persons, rheumatically affected, having heard of his experiment have called upon him and say they have been materially affected by merely sitting in the room for an hour or so. We shall watch Mr. Booksin's experiment with interest, and hope that the efficacy of his treatment may prove the truth of Gen. Pleasanton's theory. Pioneer.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF YOLO COUNTY.

WOODLAND, CAL:
Thursday, February 22, 1877.

QUERY.—If Hayes is counted in as President when the people have voted for Tilden by more than a quarter of a million majority, does he not become a usurper if he accepts, knowing that it belongs to another?

THE SAME RESULT.—The action of the so-called Electoral Commission, or National Returning Board, in refusing to carry out the purposes of the law by which it was created, has the same effect as if it had never been created and the votes had been counted by the President of the Senate.

PARTICEPS CRIMINIS.—Does not the self-constituted National Returning Board become equally guilty with the infamous Southern Returning Boards when it sustains, confirms and attempts to legalize their fraudulent action? Does it not place itself upon their level? If their action was infamous, is not that of the higher body which confirms it equally infamous?

NOW FOR OREGON.—What the course of the Commission will be upon the disputed Oregon vote it is easy to guess, after its rulings in the cases of Florida and Louisiana. Rule second, adopted at the organization of the Commission, that "on any subject submitted to the Commission a hearing shall be had," will be construed not to mean anything—will not be allowed to stand in the way of their decision any more than solemn oaths, which seem to have no weight at all—no evidence must be admitted that might militate against Hayes.

A FRAUD.—The majority of the Electoral Commission has proved its determination to defraud the people if possible. Fraud vitiates all contracts. Ought a Democratic Congress to allow the consummation of the gigantic fraud of turning the Presidency over to a man who has been defeated by an immense majority of the popular vote, stealing it from another who has been fairly elected by the same majority? Would a Republican Congress permit it? It is not yet completed. We cannot believe it will be.

NOT DENIED.—Republicans do not deny that Louisiana voted for Tilden by an immense majority. For instance, the Sacramento Bee of the 17th had this:

> "The throwing out of the 10,000 votes by the Louisiana Returning Board is an act that we never did and shall not now undertake to justify, even though there was intimidation on the other side—for two wrongs cannot make a right."

But strangely enough the Bee concludes that because the "high Commission" has said Louisiana must be counted for Hayes "the case is no longer debateable," virtually admitting that three wrongs may make a right if two cannot. Queer conclusion.

HOW INCONSISTENT.—In Florida, Drew, elected by the Democrats, holds the office of Governor indisputably, yet the Tilden Electors were defeated, according to the Commission's decision; and in Louisiana, Nichols, Democrat, is installed and performing the duties of Governor, almost unanimously sustained by the people; yet there, too, says this high old National Returning Board, the Tilden Electors were defeated, and this in the face of the admitted fact that the returns show a Democratic majority of some ten thousand, and all the election machinery in the hands of the Republicans.

PERFIDIOUS.—This is the only term we can think of which fitly characterizes the action of the Electoral Commission in failing to carry out the purpose of the law creating that body. Disputes had arisen between the two parties in regard to the result of the election in several States, and the Commission was, after much trouble, organized to examine into the matters in dispute—sworn so to do—both parties agreeing to abide by their decision. But it decides nothing; accepts no evidence upon which to decide; its partisan majority simply declares every point in favor of the Republicans. But as we said last week, still we can say at the time of this writing, "the end is not yet." Congress may sit idly by and see the Presidency of the country stolen and the choice of the people overruled by this revolutionary tribunal; but we look for better things from it before the matter is ended. We hope that there will be no trouble, but feel bound to recognize the fact that there are occasions when forbearance ceases to be a virtue, and this may yet prove to be one of those occasions.

Strong, but Suitable Language.

Senator Bogy, of Missouri, said the other day in the United States Senate, in referring to the proceedings of the Electoral Commission:

> "The Commission, in the case of Florida, laid down two rules for its guidance: First, that they would not investigate anything which had transpired before or preceding the return made by the Governor, excepting in relation to eligibility of Electors. Their decision left that question open for investigation, by a vote of 8 to 7. It was of course believed by the whole country that the same rule would be applied to Louisiana. Who on earth would have doubted the propriety of the application of that rule, when it had been enforced in the case of the State of Florida? Yet we know that but yesterday that decision was reversed. We know that a member of that Commission but yesterday changed his position upon that subject; and while it was competent in the State of Florida to go behind the returns to examine whether Electors were or were not eligible under the Constitution of the United States, when a motion was made by the Senator from Delaware (Bayard) to apply the same rule to Louisiana, the decision was reversed. The case had been made so plain by counsel, so strong, so irrefutable, that such an examination could not take place without proving beyond the possibility of a doubt that more than one Elector from that State was not entitled to the position of Elector because he was not eligible; and this decision was changed by this Commission. Sir, the names of Jeffreys and Marlborough have come down to us for ages past covered with disgrace and shame, because they were corrupt Judges; and the name of that man who changed his vote upon that Commission (Justice Bradley) will go down to after ages disgraced. His name will be associated with Marlborough and Jeffreys, and it never will be pronounced without a hiss from all good men in this country."

THE GREAT FRAUD!

The Investigating Committee Refuses to Investigate.

IT LEGALIZES FRAUD.

LOUISIANA IS COUNTED FOR HAYES.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17th, 1877.

At 5 o'clock counsel were notified that the Electoral Commission were prepared to receive them, and they entered the Court-room in a body. Some time elapsed before the doors were opened to members of Congress and those who had tickets of admission, and when they were opened a frantic rush was made for the interior, which was soon uncomfortably filled.

Following are the resolutions acted upon by the Commission in their secret session, and afterward reported to counsel.

Hoar submitted the following:

Ordered, That the evidence offered be not received.

Abbott offered the following as a substitute:

Resolved, That the evidence be received, to show that so much of the Act of Louisiana establishing a Returning Board for the State is unconstitutional, and that the acts of said Returning Board are void.

This was rejected by the following vote:

Ayes—Abbott, Bayard, Clifford, Field, Hunton, Payne and Thurman—7.

Noes—Bradley, Edmunds, Frelinghuysen, Garfield, Hoar, Miller, Morton and Strong—8.

Mr. Abbott offered another substitute as follows:

Resolved, That evidence will be received, to show that the Returning Board at the time of canvassing and compiling the vote of that State at the last election in that State was not legally constituted under the law establishing it; in this: That it was composed of four persons of one political party, instead of five persons of different parties.

Rejected by the same vote.

Abbott then offered another substitute:

Resolved, That the Commission will receive testimony on the subject of frauds alleged in the specification of counsel for objectors to certificates two and three.

Rejected by the same vote.

Abbott then offered a fourth substitute:

Resolved, That testimony tending to show that the so-called Returning Board of Louisiana had no jurisdiction to canvass the votes for President and Vice-President is admissible.

Rejected by the same vote.

Abbott offered a fifth substitute, which was rejected by the same vote:

Resolved, That evidence is admissible, to prove that statements and affidavits purporting to have been made and forwarded to the said Returning Board in pursuance of the provisions of section 26 of the Election law of 1872, alleging riot, tumult, intimidation and violence at or near certain polls in certain parishes, were false and fabricated, and forged by certain disreputable persons, under the direction and knowledge of said Returning Board. That said Returning Board, knowing said statements and said affidavits to be false and forged, and that no such statements and affidavits were made in matter or form within the time required by law, did knowingly, willingly, willfully and fraudulently fail and refuse to canvass or compile more than ten thousand votes cast, as shown by the Commissioners of Election.

Hunton offered a sixth substitute, as follows:

Resolved, That evidence be received to prove that the votes cast and given at said election on the 7th of November last, as shown by the returns made by the Commissioners of Election at the said polls and voting places in said State, have never been compiled nor canvassed, and, that said Returning Board never even pretended to compile or canvass the returns made by said Commissioners of Election, but only pretended to canvass the returns made by the State Supervisors of Registration.

Rejected by the same vote.

The seventh substitute was offered by Bayard, as follows:

Resolved, That no person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States is eligible to be appointed Elector; and this Commission will receive evidence tending to prove said ineligibility, as offered by counsel for objectors to certificates numbers one and three.

Rejected by the same vote.

Justice Field offered the eighth and last substitute, as follows:

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Commission, evidence is admissible upon the several matters which the counsel for objectors to certificates numbers one and three offered to prove.

Rejected by the same vote.

The question as to the original order submitted by Hoar then came up, viz: That the evidence offered be not received.

Payne moved to strike out the word "not."

Rejected by the same vote.

A vote on the original order was then taken, and it was adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—Bradley, Edmunds, Frelinghuysen, Garfield, Hoar, Miller, Morton and Strong—8.

Nays—Abbott, Bayard, Clifford, Field, Hunton, Payne and Thurman—7.

After a conclusion had been reached by the Commission, counsel were admitted and the above resolutions were read by the Secretary.

Judge Clifford asked if they were satisfied to rest their case.

Evarts said they were satisfied to rest their case as it stood.

Justice Clifford asked if opposing counsel also agreed to it.

Judge Campbell said he had nothing to add, under the circumstances.

Commissioner Abbott—I understand you, Judge Campbell, to say, that the Commission having ruled out the evidence you offered, you have nothing further to urge?

Judge Campbell—Yes sir.

Justice Clifford said that the motion was withdrawn.

Morton moved that three members of the Commission be appointed to prepare a Report in the Louisiana case, and that a recess of one hour be taken.

On motion of Hoar, the Commission at 5:30 o'clock, went into secret session for consultation.

Payne moved that one hour be allowed each side in which to make arguments.

Garfield objected, saying the whole question had already been discussed by taking extra time.

Morton said that unless counsel desired he should vote against the proposition. He would not invite counsel to argue the question further.

Evarts said his side had argued the whole question fully, and had covered the whole merits of the case.

The motion was then withdrawn.

Hoar then moved that the Commission go into secret session for the purpose of consultation on the question. Adopted. The crowd were directed to leave the room.

THE RESULT.

Immediately after the doors were closed, Morton offered the following:

Resolved, That the persons named as Electors in certificate number one are the lawful Electors of the State of Louisiana, and their votes are the votes provided by the Constitution of the United States, and should be counted for President and Vice-President.

This resolution was adopted by a vote of eight to seven, as follows:

Yeas—Bradley, Garfield, Morton, Edmunds, Hoar, Frelinghuysen, Miller and Strong—8.

Nays—Abbott, Bayard, Clifford, Field, Hunton, Payne and Thurman—7.

Justices Miller and Bradley, and Representative Hoar were then appointed a Committee to draft a report of the decision, with a brief statement of the reasons therefor, to be signed by the members agreeing therein, and to be transmitted to the joint session of the two Houses. The report is to the following effect: The Electoral Commission having received certain certificates and papers purporting to be certificates of the Electoral votes of Louisiana and certain papers accompanying the same, and objections thereto, report: That it has duly considered the same, and has decided and does hereby decide that the votes of William Pitt Kellogg, O. H. Brewster, A. B. Livessee, Oscar Jeffrion, Peter Joseph, J. H. Birch, L. A. Sheldon, and Morris Marks, named in the certificates of Wm. P. Kellogg, Governor of said State, which votes are certified by said persons, as appears by the certificates submitted to the Commission as aforesaid, and marked No. 1, are the votes provided for by the Constitution of the United States. That the same are lawfully to be counted as therein certified, namely, eight votes for Rutherford B. Hayes for President, and eight votes for William A. Wheeler for Vice-President.

The Commission remained in session until 9 o'clock when an adjournment to 4 P.M. tomorrow was ordered. While the Commission was in secret session, remarks were made by Morton, Thurman, Garfield, Bayard, Edmunds, Hunton, Hoar and Bradley, the last named closing the discussion.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20th.—The House met at 11 o'clock. The regular business of the day was introduced by Gibson offering an order that the Hayes Electoral votes for Louisiana be not counted.

Debate closed at 1 o'clock, and the House then voted on Gibson's resolution, that the decision of the Commission be not agreed to. It was adopted—yeas 182, nays 99, a party vote, except Seelye and Pierce of Massachusetts, who voted with the Democrats. A message was then sent to the Senate, that the House was ready to meet that body in joint convention.

The Joint Convention.

WASHINGTON, February 19th.—At 11 o'clock the joint meeting of Congress was resumed to receive the report of the Joint Committee on the Louisiana Electoral vote. The decision was then read. The ground of this decision is that it appears upon such evidence as, by the Constitution and law named in said Act of Congress, is competent and pertinent to a consideration of the subject, that the Republican Electors of President and Vice-President of the United States for the term beginning March 4th, 1877, of the State of Louisiana, and that they voted as such at the time and in the maner provided for by the Constitution of the United States and the law, and the Commission has, by majority of votes, decided that it is not competent, under the Constitution and law, as it existed at the date of the passage of said Act, to go into evidence to prove that other persons than those regularly certified to by the Governor of the State, on and according to the determination of their appointment by the returning officers for Electors in said State prior to the time required for the performance of their duties, had been appointed Electors, or by contrary proof to show that they had not, or that the determination of said officers was not in accordance with truth and fact. The Commission, by a majority of votes, are of the opinion that it is not competent to prove that any of the said persons so appointed Electors as aforesaid had an office of trust or profit under the United States at the time when they were appointed, or that they were ineligible under the law of the State, or any other matter offered to be proved aliunde certificates and papers. The Commission is also of the opinion, by a majority of votes, that the returning officers of the election, who canvassed the votes for Electors in Louisiana, were a lawfully constituted body by virtue of a constitutional law, and that a vacancy in said body did not vitiate its proceedings. The signatures are Samuel F. Miller, W. Strong, Joseph Bradley, George F. Edmunds, O. P. Morton, Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, James A. Garfield, George F. Hoar.

The decision having been read the presiding officer asked whether there were any objections to the decision.

Gibson presented objections to the decision on the ground that the Commission had refused to receive evidence which had been offered, and had decided that the votes mentioned in the certificates one and three should be counted for Hayes and Wheeler, such evidence to the contrary notwithstanding.

The paper recites at length the proceedings of the commission, but the point of it is the rejection of the evidence. It is signed by most of the Democrats of both houses. The reading of the paper occupied just an hour. Finally, when the reading was ended, an opportunity was given members who had not yet signed the paper to step to the Clerk's desk and affix their names. This used up more time and added to the uproar.

At 12:45 the Joint Convention was again called to order, and the presiding officer asked whether there was any furthur objections to the decision.

Senator Wallace presented objections which were read. They are:

First—That the decision is in violation of the Electoral Act in this: That by the Act the Commission is required to decide whether any, and what, votes from such State are the votes provided for by the Constitution, and what persons were duly appointed Electors, yet the Commission refused to examine and ascertain who were duly appointed Electors in and by the State of Louisiana, and what votes from that State are within the provision of the Constitution of the United States.

Second—Because the Act creating the Commission was passed to the end that the Commission would hear and examine the evidence, and honestly decide what Electors in any disputed State were fairly elected; whereas the Commission refused to hear and consider the evidence offered to show that the Electors whose votes the Commission had decided should be counted were not duly chosen, but they had falsely and fraudulently acted as such Electors, and also refused the offer to show that the pretended certificates of election were procured by corruption, and were wholly untrue.

Third—Because the decision is in disregard of truth, practice and law, and establishes the demoralizing and ominous doctrine that fraud, forgery, bribery and perjury can lawfully be used as a means to make a President of the United States against the well known or easily ascertained will of the people, and of the States.

This paper was signed by Senators Wallace, Johnson, Baily, Kernan, Kelley of Oregon, Saulsbury and other Senators and members.

The presiding officer having called for other objections to the decision, Cochrane presented an objection and protest, signed by himself and several Senators and Representatives, for the following reasons:

First—It was not denied before the Commission that the Tilden Electors in Louisiana had received a large majority of the votes cast.

Second—It was not denied before the Commission that Wells and his associates, styling themselves a Returning Board, were guilty of gross frauds; that their certificates given to the Hayes Electors were false and fraudulent, or that their action in canvassing the votes was in violation of the Constitution and law of the State.

Third—The action of the eight members of the Commission, in declining to hear the evidence of these and other facts, was a violation of the letter and spirit of the Act under which the Commission was created, and of the spirit of the Constitution of the United States.

No further objections being presented, the presiding officer announced that the Senate would withdraw, so that the two houses might separately consider and decide on the objections.

The Senate having withdrawn, the House thereupon took a recess, and the Democrats remained in the hall for caucus.

WASHINGTON, February 20.—At 1:35 P.M. the Senate and House met in Joint Convention, and President Ferry, after the usual preliminaries, said the two houses not having decided otherwise, the decision of the vote of Louisiana, which Senator Allison, as teller, announced, was, according to the Commission, 8 for Hayes and Wheeler, and would stand approved.

The count then proceeded till Michigan was reached when an objection was made to one of the Electors, but the objection was overruled by both houses. Objection was also made to one of the Nevada Electors, but this was also overruled.

Both houses then took a recess till 10 o'clock Wednesday. At that session Oregon was arrived at in the count and referred to the Commission.

District Court Summons.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Sixth Judicial District, State of California, County of Yolo.

W. J. CLARKE, Plaintiff, vs. NELSON D. WANEMAKER and JACOB MORNINGSTAR, Defendant.

The People of the State of California send greeting to NELSON D. WANEMAKER and JACOB MORNINGSTAR:

You are hereby summoned to appear and answer the complaint of W. J. CLARKE in said Court filed against you within ten days from the service of this writ, exclusive of the day of service, if served on you in this county; if served out of this county, but within this Judicial District, within twenty days; but if served on you without said District, then in forty days from such service, exclusive of the day of service, in an action commenced on the 17th day of February, 1877, in said Court.

Said action is brought to recover of Defendants the sum of Twelve thousand two hundred and sixty-four and fifty-nine one-hundredths dollars ($12,264.59) in U. S. gold coin due Plaintiff upon a contract and agreement entered into between said Defendants and said Plaintiff on or about the 31st day of May, 1871, and also for legal interest on the sum of $12,200 from the 15th day of July, 1875, and for costs of suit; and you are hereby notified, that if you fail to appear and answer the complaint as directed, Plaintiff will take default and apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof, I, D. M. BURNS, Clerk of the Sixth Judicial District Court aforesaid, do hereunto set my hand and affix the Seal of said Court, at office in Woodland, this 19th day of February, A.D. 1877.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, THAT unless the Taxes delinquent, together with the costs and percentage due thereon, as appears in the annexed and foregoing list are paid, I will sell at PUBLIC AUCTION, in front of the County Court House, in the Town of Woodland, County of Yolo, on FRIDAY, the TWENTY-THIRD DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1877, at Ten o'clock A.M., the real property upon which such taxes are a lien.

Dated, February 1st, 1877.

A. C. KEAN,
fe1-td Tax Collector Yolo County.

For 30 Days
From date I will sell for Cash my Entire Stock of Men's and Boys' Clothing
AT COST.

This is no myth or fabulous assertion, but a bona fide fact. My stock is too large and must be reduced, therefore I take this mode, preferring my own customers to receive the benefit of the sacrifice, rather than Auction houses at San Francisco, as is too often the plan adopted by merchants to reduce their stock, and thereby deprive their own townspeople the benefit of the sacrifice. Call at once and examine my goods, and satisfy yourselves that there is one house in Sacramento that does not advertise one thing and practice another. I do not offer my goods at reduced rates because they are damaged or out of style, or to make room for new goods, but simply to reduce my stock. I guarantee every article in good order, or no sale. Those desiring Clothing will find it to their advantage to call immediately as I do not intend to sell to-day and replenish to-morrow, but make a positive reduction during a period of thirty days only. On hand a full and choice stock of Card to the Public.

On account of the ill health of my wife, I shall be absent from Woodland a part of the time for the next three months. I have not sold out my interest in the Dental office, nor do I intend so to do; but sickness makes it impossible for me to be in the office only a portion of the time as above stated. During my absence the business of the office will be conducted by my partner, Dr. Holmes, who is in every respect competent, having had a large experience and a thorough College education in the profession of Dentistry.

Thanking the public for past patronage, we still hope to merit a continuance of the same, by doing nothing but first-class work at reasonable prices.

District Court Summons.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Sixth Judicial District, State of California, County of Yolo.

MAGGIE STINAFF, Plaintiff, vs. E. S. STINAFF, Defendant.

The People of the State of California send greeting to E. S. STINAFF:

You are hereby summoned to appear and answer the complaint of MAGGIE STINAFF in said Court filed against you within ten days from the service of this writ, exclusive of the day of service, if served on you in this county; if served out of this county, but within this Judicial District, within twenty days; but if served on you without said District, then in forty days from such service, exclusive of the day of service, in an action commenced on the 15th day of January, 1877, in said Court.

Said action is brought to obtain a decree of Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between Plaintiff and Defendant, on the ground of willful desertion and failure to provide Plaintiff with the necessaries of life. Also that Plaintiff have the care, custody and control of her infant child, ERNEST P. STINAFF, and for general relief. And you are hereby notified, that if you fail to appear and answer the complaint as directed, Plaintiff will take default and apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof, I, D. M. BURNS, Clerk of the Sixth Judicial District Court aforesaid, do hereunto set my hand and affix the Seal of said Court, at office in Woodland, this 20th day of January, A.D. 1877.

[SEAL.] D. M. BURNS, Clerk.
J. C. BALL, Attorney for Plaintiff. ja25-2m

Justice's Court Summons.

IN THE JUSTICE'S COURT, CACHE Creek Township, in the County of Yolo, State of California.

WEAVER & JOHNSON, composed of A. WEAVER and R. JOHNSON, Plaintiffs, vs. WM. M. ANDERSON, Defendant.

The People of the State of California send greeting to WM. M. ANDERSON, Defendant.

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named Plaintiffs in the Justice's Court of Cache Creek Township, County of Yolo, State of California, and to answer before the Justice at his office in said Township, the Complaint filed therein, within five days (exclusive of the day of service), after the service on you of this summons—if served within the Township in which this action is brought; or, if served out of said Township, but in said County, within ten days; otherwise within twenty days.

The said action is brought to recover of you the sum of thirty-four dollars and seventy-five cents ($34.75) in gold coin of the United States, money due upon an account for blacksmithing done at your instance and request by Plaintiffs in the years 1875 and 1876, an account of items having been filed as complaint in my office, to which you are referred for particulars. And you are hereby notified that if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint, as above required, said Plaintiffs will take judgment against you for the sum of $34.75 in gold coin of the United States, together with costs of suit.

Make legal service and due return hereof.

Given under my hand this 16th day of October, 1876.

P. H. SIBLEY,
Justice of the Peace of said Township.

Justice's Summons.

IN THE JUSTICE'S COURT OF GRAFTON Township, in the County of Yolo, State of California.

HENRY PROVOST, Plaintiff, vs. C. B. MANCHESTER, Defendant:

The People of the State of California send greeting to C. B. MANCHESTER, Defendant.

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named Plaintiff in the Justice's Court of Grafton Township, County of Yolo, State of California, and to answer before the Justice at his office in said Township, the Complaint filed therein; within five days, (exclusive of the day of service), after the service on you of this summons—if served within the Township in which this action is brought; or, if served out of said Township, but in said County, within ten days; otherwise, within twenty days.

The said action is brought to recover the sum of seventy-seven and ninety-five one-hundredths dollars ($77.95) in United States gold coin, on an account for board and money advanced to Defendant by Plaintiff at the especial instance and request of Defendant. And you are hereby notified that if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint, as above required, said Plaintiff will take judgment against you for the sum of seventy-seven and ninety-five one-hundreths dollars ($77.95), together with costs of this suit.

Make legal service and due return hereof.

Given under my hand this 6th day of February, 1877.

H. M. HOYT,
Justice of the Peace of said Township.

Town and County Matters

Every letter or communication to the DEMOCRAT should bear the name of the author, not necessarily for publication, but as a guaranty of good faith.

NEW RAILROAD INCORPORATION.—On Monday last there were filed in the office of the Secretary of State articles of incorporation of the Vaca Valley and Clear Lake Railroad Company. It is organized to operate a line of railroad known as the Vaca Valley Railroad, and to extend the same to and up Cache Creek to Clear Lake. Place of business, Vacaville. Directors—A. M. Stevenson, G. B. Stevenson, Thos. Mansfield, A. Theodore and J. Donaldson. Capital stock, $1,000,000. Five hundred thousand dollars has been actually subscribed of the stock. The number of shares is 100,000. If a road is ever constructed through Capay Valley and Cache Creek Cañon it will be a good thing for this valley as well as for the country which it proposes to penetrate. This will practically amount to the same as the proposed Woodland, Clear Lake and Humboldt railroad. It is not probable, however, that for the present it will be continued further than Madison, ten miles north of its present terminus at Winters.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS.—For a great improvement in its external appearance, the Congregational Church is indebted to Mr. W. G. Hunt and other gentlemen. Under his direction the sidewalk has been put in order, the front fence removed, the necessary side fences put up and the open area before the church well gravelled. As the change increases the attractiveness of the whole street, the thanks of the community, as well as of the Society, are due to these gentlemen. The large artificial paving stone at the church door, given by Messrs. Scott & Martin, is also a valuable addition and a step in the right direction.

BEAUTIFUL PICTURES.—We have examined the new cromograph pictures of Mr. King of this place, and are free to admit that they surpass anything we have before seen in that line. While they are softer and more pleasing to the eye, yet they have the clear distinctness of an oil painting. He also frames them very nicely. Mr. King is without doubt the best artist we have ever had in Woodland.

EXCHANGE OF PULPITS.—Rev. H. E. Jewett of Redwood City, will preach in the Congregational Church next Sunday, on exchange with the Pastor. Mr. Jewett and his father-in-law, the Rev. Dr. Dwinell of Sacramento, have been settled longer than any other Congregational Minister in California. Mr. Jewett lectures in Sacramento next week.

BANKRUPTCY SALE.—By reference to our new advertisements it will be seen that an extensive assignee's sale in bankruptcy will take place by auction at the Pierce and Freeman ranches, in Capay Valley, on Saturday next, Feb. 24th. There will be sold to the highest bidder 320 sacks of wheat, 422 sacks barley, 50 tons hay, 150 hogs, a lot of horses, mules, harness, wagons, farming machinery, etc.

IN FULL BLAST.—The new mercantile firm of Ludden & Forrester have opened out a fine general stock, consisting of dry goods, clothing, boots, hats, furnishing goods, crockery, glass ware, etc., etc., and respectfully invite the public to give them a call. Their store, lately occupied by Read & Simpson, has been thoroughly renovated. Read their advertisement.

A GOOD WORK.—The School Trustees are having the trees in the school lot cultivated and the place of the dead ones supplied with others. The town authorities should do their part and have the side walks on Main and Court streets opposite the school lot graded and graveled. A trifling outlay would complete the whole job.

SINGING CLASS.—Professor Hall will meet with all who desire to learn to sing by note on Sunday next at 2 P.M. in the Advent Church. Professor Hall is said to be a first-class teacher, and if suffieient inducements are offered, will give a course of lessons; time and place to be announced hereafter.

ARTIFICIAL STONE.—We call attention to the card of Mr. Henry Martin, artificial stone manufacturer. Specimens of the stone may be seen at the manufactory, adjoining Masonic Block, at the Congregational Church, etc. It is cheap, durable and efficient.

BOULON FAMILY.—A concert and dramatic entertainment will be given at Washington Hall by the well known Paul Boulon Family and Troupe on Friday evening next, Feb. 23d. See advertisement for particulars.

PREACHING IN GERMAN.—Rev. Mr. Langenbacker will preach at the Methodist Church in the German language, at half-past 1 P.M. on Sunday next, Feb. 25th. All are invited.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.—Services at 11 A.M. and 7 P.M. Preaching by Rev. H. E. Jewett, of Redwood City. All cordially invited. Seats free.

LOST.—A gold quartz ring was lost in Woodland about two weeks since. The finder, on leaving it at the Craft House, will be suitably rewarded.

SOCIAL PARTY.—There will be a social party and dance at Central Hall this evening in honor of Washington's Birthday.

Winters Correspondence.

WINTERS, Feb. 20th, 1877.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—A better day has dawned to every branch of industry and a revival of business prosperity becomes more evident since the country is smiling under the timely rains, which have produced a better feeling in every department of trade. In no season has this agricultural district seemed more hopeful for the coming harvest than at this writing.

The late drought can hardly be said to have done the farmers any financial harm; probably it had a good effect. It learned them to buy nothing that they could not pay for at the time of purchase; it learned them to carry on their farms more economically, and not kill the goose that lays the golden egg by burning the straw simply to get rid of it, when by a small amount of labor it could be stacked in the field where it would be good feed for years to come. But in times of prosperity it seems we turn our backs on adversity.

A decided improvement has taken place in real estate. Sales have been made at figures ranging from $75 to $80 per acre and inquiries are increasing with no limited number of ready purchasers, at even greater figures.

We notice several of our farmers are sowing small patches of chufas as an experiment. Our wool growers are sanguine of a good yield of lambs and a good clip of wool.

That very grave and judicious old gentleman whose name is "Legality," is having a few days of rest after so much labor and fatigue.

A conflagration, novel in form, occurred in Winters on Friday night last, in which a small house 6 by 8 feet, was burned, and with it several thousand lives were lost. This den was the dormitory of a man who sixteen or eighteen years ago was the beau ideal of Cacheville. Many a fair maiden's heart was made to beat with joy when this handsome young man would descend from the music stand to take their hands for the next dance. Honest and generous as he is, he would deserve a more favorable notice, but an unfortunate thirst for liquor has carried him down through the slough of despond and hence his nuisance of a residence, swarming with live insects, was intolerable, and no doubt some one feeling an interest for the sanitary condition of the town, stuck a match to the pile of filth for a speedy disinfection. Yours truly, ORLAND.

Letter from "Independent Farmer."

MISSOURI RANCH, Feb. 14th, 1877.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—A line or two from West Grafton probably will be acceptable to the general reader—to hear from this part of the county as to the crops, etc. Well sir the outlook never was better since farming commenced on Cache Creek. "Independent Farmer" has been here twenty-four years and has heard a great deal of prophecying by the old weather prophets, and has come to the conclusion that they know as little as he does, and he knows nothing as regards future weather. But if those genial showers continue on as they have thus far, we may look for an abundant harvest in this vicinity. Grain has been put in well, and looks strong and thrifty.

Farmers are using more economy than they used to, yet there is a great deal to be learned, and we have to have time to learn all these things. We as farmers are wearing our land out; or in other words, our land needs rest. If we could farm half our ranches every other year and pasture the other half alternately, our expenses would be less, our profits would be more, the wear and toil of our wives would be lessened and happiness would smile continually around the hearthstone, while our land would thereby be kept up for generations to come.

This is the garden of the world; but in every garden there are thorns, and these thorns bear fruit and the fruit is bitter. Old man, I would speak to you, but I forbear. Young man, I would exhort you. When you were a little infant, how your mother loved you and pressed you to her bosom and called you her darling angel. Forget it not; cherish her memory. I will tell you what those thorns are. Paul had a "thorn in the flesh." We are not told what sort of a thorn that was. The thorn that is in the way is chewing and smoking tobacco, card playing and drinking whiskey, and many other things that do not come up to the Golden Rule, which is, to love the Lord with all our might and strength and our neighbor as ourself. But I can truly say we have a large-hearted, generous people in California, willing to assist in acts of charity.

Times are not as they were ten years ago. Then, after our crops were in we could start our teams to freighting, employ a man to take charge of and drive them, take freight up into the mountains and bring back lumber; all this gave employment to man and beast. Now these things are changed; men and horses only work about four months in the year and the farmer can not do so well, and therefore cannot afford to hire except in crop time, when he is forced to have help. What is the cause of all this? Anyone with half an eye can see the point. We do not get the worth of our wheat and we cannot pay the price for labor and therefore you are thrown out of employment, you spend all your money before you can get another job. This throws an army of idlers into our villages, towns and cities. Is this state of affairs going to get any better? No. With all the improved labor saving machinery now in use it lessens labor and every farmer will be able to do his own work. Readers—I am sorry to say it—the Chinese are being thrust upon us in great numbers, which will make it hard for the man who labors for wages.

These are truths to ponder upon. More anon. INDEPENDENT FARMER.

Dixon Correspondence.

DIXON, Feb. 19th, 1877.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—Again I begin my correspondence with the glad tidings that the prospect for a good season are brilliant, at least in this section of the country. The farmers speak very highly of the present weather, and with a few showers during the next two months, they are fully confident of raising a good crop. A good deal of grain of last year's crop has been shipped from here lately, but still considerable wheat is held back by some of the farmers as they are in hopes of getting a higher price.

S. B. Northcutt, son of M. Northcutt, met with a severe injury on the 10th of this month by the accidental discharge of a pistol, the bullet striking him in the breast and passing through his lung. At the time of my writing he is reported by the physicians to be doing well, and his parents and friends entertain strong hopes of his recovery. Let this be a lesson to all those who are in the habit of carrying fire arms, especially to young people who certainly have no apparent reason for carrying a weapon of any kind.

The Centennial Social Club will give a grand ball on the 22d, the anniversary of Washington's Birthday. This is the only thing that your correspondent has heard of in the way of celebrating that day in this place. The ball is to come off at the Centennial Hall, and is under the management of several of our well known townsmen.

Real estate in this neighborhood is at present sold at high figures. Mr. Steele's land brought $100 per acre, as also Mr. McKinley's piece of land, containing 80 acres, which sold a few days ago for the sum of $8,000. Mr. Pierson sold 160 acres to Mr. John Burke for $12,000.

The present grain prices indicate that the farmers are realizing the fact that good soil is worth something.

Mr. William Steele has bought him a home near San José, but what sort of a place I have not been able to ascertain. Mr. Steele has for a long time resided in this county.

Several transfers of real estate have been made in this town lately; prominent among them I notice the sale of a piece of property by Leake to Hall, and another by Schirmer to Udell; considerations four and three thousand dollars respectively. All this shows that money is not very scarce.

The report that Louisiana has been given to Hayes and Wheeler has caused quite a stir among our town politicians. It seems to have astonished some of them very much. A good many hats and a considerable amount of money had been staked on the result of the decision of the Electoral Commission. Your correspondent knows of one good staunch Republican who bet $10 that Tilden would be our next President; but from the present prospects it appears very probable that he will lose his money.

Messrs. Frahm and Hinman, who were in your town last week report your place in a flourishing condition. This is good, as nothing speaks more highly of the condition of the surrounding country than a good lively town.

Mr. Tackney, of Woodland, gave our town a call last week. He looks, as usual, well and hearty.

A child of Mr. Wolfe was seriously hurt by a cow last Saturday evening, but the wounds are not considered dangerous.

Mr. Keirsker, who was hurt some time ago by falling from his horse, has so far recovered as to be able to walk again.

Tremont Station, four miles northeast of this place, is to have a Post-office, Mr. G. W. Foster to be Postmaster.

The telegraph office at Maine Prairie was closed by the company last week.

Hon. H. E. McCune and family returned from a visit to Colusa last week.

The dispute between Mr. Huff and the Grangers has not been settled yet, which causes some inconvenience to those who are loading grain on the cars for shipment, as the Grangers' warehouse is situated some distance from the main track, the side track leading to the warehouse being fenced in. ROMAN.

THE REASON.—Professor P. C. Dorrego, the great guitar player, writes us from Sacramento that the reason his concert did not come off as announced is that a member of his troupe was sick. He expects to appear here soon, however, and will give notice before hand.

CATHOLIC SERVICES.—There will be Mass at the Catholic Church on next Sunday, Feb. 29th, at 10½ A.M., and Vespers at 7 P.M.

SUNDAY CLOSING AGREEMENT.

We, the undersigned, dealers in Dry Goods and General Merchandise of the Town of Woodland, hereby agree to the following:

That for and in consideration of the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) paid into each other's hand by the undersigned, we hereby agree not to open our place of business, and that we will not engage in selling any merchandise therein on each and every SUNDAY, until further notice, under penalty of a forfeit of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($250.00), gold coin, to be paid by any of the undersigned violating the above agreement; said forfeit to be divided by the remaining undersigned.

EXPLANATION.—Editor Democrat:—In my correspondence of last week I made mention of real estate transfers about to take place, which if consummated would be gladly hailed by many—meaning that said transfers were calculated for the improvement of the town of Cacheville. It seems, however, that certain parties have misconstrued my meaning to that of something personal, which was by no means intended. I trust that this explanation will be satisfactory.

A number of town lots have changed hands within the last two weeks, the purchasing parties intending to build upon them immediately. CYRIL.
CACHEVILLE, Feb. 19, 1877.

CLOSE COLLECTION.—A. C. Kean, Treasurer and Tax Collector of Yolo County, informs us that out of a total assessment of $182.000, up to yesterday noon there remained uncollected only $4,030.64. Probably a part of this will be paid before the time of sale.

O. OF C.—At a meeting of the Camp of the Order of Caucasians of Woodland on Saturday evening last, the following Delegates were elected to attend the State Encampment which convenes in Sacramento Feb. 22d: J. R. Aull, A. S. House, John Quilty.

REMOVAL.—Read & Simpson have moved into the store one door west of their old quarters, which has been reshelved, countered, thoroughly painted and overhauled throughout. Their new quarters are neat and tasty. See their new advertisement.

AN HONEST CONGRESSMAN.—Hon. Wm. J. Purman, Republican Congressman from Florida, made a speech in the House in which he states that Tilden is honestly entitled to the vote of that State. His remarks are given on our first page.

SUNDAY CLOSING.—As will be seen by their card in another column, a number of our leading business houses have agreed to keep their stores closed on Sunday hereafter. If lived up to it will be a good thing for all concerned.

M. E. CHURCH NOTICE.—The Rev. G. B. Bowman, of San José, will preach in the Woodland M. E. Church every night this week and on Sunday next. The friends are invited to come and hear him. W. C. CURRY.

STATE REWARD.—Governor Irwin yesterday offered a reward of $500 for the detection of the murderer of August Cameron, who was brutally murdered near Sonoma last week by some one as yet unknown.

TALL WHEAT.—Mr. John Freeman showed us a sample of Yolo county summer-fallow wheat nearly a week ago which measured four feet in height.

MARINE DISASTERS—Last evening's papers brought news of the loss of thirty vessels, with all their crews, off the British coast, on the night of Feb. 19th.

Bronchitis.

From John Flagg, Esq., of Bennington, N. H.

"Three years since I was very much reduced with a dreadful cough, which resulted in Bronchitis, affecting me so severely as to render it difficult to speak in an audible voice. To this was added severe night sweats, and I was fearful of going into a decline. After recourse to various remedies, to no purpose, I made use of "Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry," a few bottles of which fully restored me to health. Since that time I have had several severe attacks of cough, but the "Balsam" has always removed them. I always keep it by me, and should not know how to do without it." Sold by all druggists.

Strange, but True.

Your Cough is killing you! Is your life worth 25 cents? If so, use "Dr. Seth Arnold's Cough Killer," the great eradicator of all Lung Diseases. It is superior to all other remedies yet discovered for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Whooping Cough, Croup, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. Price 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Call on E. BYNUM & Co., Agents, Woodland, Cal., and obtain a bottle. If relief is not afforded, money refunded. Two doses will relieve the most severe case. A sure, speedy, and perfectly safe remedy, proved by trial to excel any other in the world. Remember it is warranted. Compounded by the Dr. Seth Arnold Medical Corporation, Woonsocket, R. I.

The Peruvian Syrup!

Vitalizes and enriches the blood, tones up the system, builds up the broken down, cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affection, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the Blood, or accompanied by Debility or a low state of the system.

CAUTION!—Be sure you get the "Peruvian Syrup." One dollar and two dollars a bottle. Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & SONS, 86 Harrison Ave., Boston. Sold by druggists generally.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—The estimation in which these medicines are held by the public, steadily increases their demand. They act directly on the system, removing all obstructions, renovating the springs of life, purifying the blood, and totally eradicating liver complaints, indigestion, pain in the side and general debility. Sold everywhere. 25 cents per box or pot.

THERE are more than one thousand different kind of pills in the United States. Some of them are worthless and injurious, others are good and beneficial. Old Dr. Parsons invented the best anti-bilious pill we ever saw or heard of. They are now sold under the name of "Parson's Purgative Pills."

WE understand that the whooping-cough is quite prevalent in the towns around us; but no cases have proved fatal. Some families use nothing but "Johnson's Anodyne Liniment." Our Doctor, however, says a little ipecac, to produce vomiting, would be an advantage.

Vacant Places

In the dental ranks will never occur if you are particular with your teeth, and cleanse them every day with that famous tooth-wash, SOZODONT. From youth to old age it will keep the enamel spotless and unimpaired. The teeth of persons who use SOZODONT have a pearl-like whiteness, and the gums a roseate hue, while the breath is purified, and rendered sweet and fragrant. It is composed of rare antiseptic herbs and is entirely free from the objectionable and injurious ingredients of Tooth Pastes, etc.

A THREATENING LETTER.

The following letter was received through the Woodland Post Office by Charles Ogburn, of this place on Tuesday last, and is handed in by H. U. Ogburn for publication, so that the public can judge of the matter contained therein:

WOODLAND, Feb. 18th, 1877.

Mr. Chas. Ogborn:—I am sory that I am concenciously compelled to write to you on so sad a subject: as the one which is now before me. And that you are guilty of sech mean and low actions as you have manifested within the past few dayes. Oh you heartless wretch, I know no other name for such as you, for any one that would treat a person and especialy a lady should be looked uppon by, and is looked at as nothing more than a mere brute. How have you acted towards this young lady your sister and law ask yourself the question, And note the answer. And you too will have to answer the question as well as ask it, for if the good Book is true, which I hope and beleve is, you will at som future time be called uppon to answer for this before your God. Have you made Friends by these actions. No, but you have mad many enemies, and you have not any too many friends at the best. And from what I can learn, this poor lady which you have been trying to make so unhappy has 5, yes 25 friends to where the whole Ogborn family has one. What must her future life be? it will be one of sorrow and sadness; she will soon be left a widdow with that child in her arms without a father's protection and with all her affliction. You have done all you could to make it more cevere heart rending. You ought to ask to be forgiven before your God and man. Your heart must be as stone, or you could not so have done. You should have tried and exerted all your Power (if you have any) to quench the flames that were burning ear it was kindled and faned tinto such an unquenchable flame. And insted of trying to make the life of this ladys more sad than it already was you should have exerted all your strenght and energies towards making it as pleasant as it could be under the sad existing circumstances; there is your Brother who is, I expect is on his death bed with these feelings burning within his breast, and you keep them up by fanning the coles and keeping them rekindled when they are inclined to die out and forever be forgotten. What will you think when you are standing around his Death bed, will you feel and know that he is pasing away with a pure mind and leaving a pure and happy life behind him. Oh, said to say, it will be far from such, however much you may hope and think it thus. And when he has gone can his dear wife who is left behind in sorrow feel and look back with sweet recolections of the past, and think of the happy times which she spent in his presence when he was by her side. I fear it will be far from it, it cannot be such. Oh, I pity her. One who is scarcely in her womanhood and has seen a world of trouble and sorrow; life is short at best, and when it is filled with such grief it is far shorter. But she can rest asured that her God will care for her and never forsake her, but he will at last call for her to leave this world of sorrow And take her to his own home, where sorrow shall be unknown and hapiness shall abound forever, But I fear that her family will not all meet at the same place, for if there is another place for the sinners I think that her husband will be absent, And that he will be found in the dark and dreary regeons of hell, for you know it is said that the "Sinners and Gambler's life is written on the gates of hell." Now I hope you will heed these words, for I assure you if you do not now see these things you will at some time find to your sorrow that what I have said is only to true. For it has all been recorded against you, and you will have to be examined and called uppon to give account for these deeds Before your Judge. Not man, but before your God. And I fear your will find that there is many a stain uppon your character which can never be erced. If I were you I would leave this town very soon, for you are a cast off from respectable cociety, your friends have turned the cold shoulder uppon you and you are look uppon as not a fit a subject to be living in a civalized comunity. And I have heard as many as forty men in this town say that you ought to be ceverly punnished for your damnible actions towards one that ought to be your affection Friend; beleive me this is not merely the thoughts of the one that is writing this, but the whole community at large. And the bublick centiment of the citizens of Woodland Are embodied in this one letter. As you will find it is realy so, if you do not go slow and mend your ways in the future. For the people of this town are to cimpathising to allow such things to be carried on without interfering. I suppose you thought you was acting brave, but it shows on the face of it that it is the actions of none but a low lifed coward. And this has finaly placed the Ogborn family before the bublick in their true collors, and has Give the bublict to know what kind of stock they are. But they cannot run this town as I think they have already found, And I for one think that if they were out of this comunity it would be a god send to the county, And the biblick generally are of the same opinion throughout the county of Yolo and town of woodland at least.

A Song for Superannuated Preachers.

We are waiting for the Master,
For our sun is almost down,
And its parting radiance gleameth,
Like the glintings from a crown;
But He bids us not be idle
While the daylight seems to stray,
If we can not do full service,
We at least can watch and pray.

We are waiting for the Master,
We have wandered far and wide,
Sown and reaped and bound the harvest,
Stood in battle side by side;
Now when heart and courage faileth,
Hands are week and feet are slow,
To our doors our duty cometh,
Round our path occasions grow.

We can wipe the tear of sorrow,
We can comfort hearts that bleed,
We can plant for future harvests,
Scatter here and there a seed,
We can pluck the tares of error,
Nurture if we can't defend,
We can watch a broken hedge-row
Till a stronger hand can mend.

We must strive with fierce temptation
Coming with our waning powers,
Serve in waiting, not in doing,
Bear through many weary hours
Doubts and fears which active labor
In the ranks can never feel,
Wrestling in a broken harness,
Fighting with a blunted steel.

Soon the Master will be calling,
We who sowed in tears the seed,
Will our sheaves be homeward bringing,
Joy and gladness on our head;
And we'll answer Welcome! Welcome!
To the message from above,
Lay aside our broken armor,
Rest us in His boundless love.

So long as the personnel of the Supreme Court of the United States remains as it is now constituted, litigants, who desire to gain their causes, should be careful that their political views accord with those of a majority of the Judges.

The members of the Louisiana Returning Board do not like to be kept in close confinement during their enforced stay at Washington; but the whole country will now agree that it is dangerous for such frauds to be at large a single day of their lives.

McKee is pardoned; McDonald is pardoned, and his fine of $5,000 remitted; Joyce is to be pardoned, and nothing remains now to be done in the St. Louis whiskey cases, but for the President to put Bristow, Broadhead, Henderson, Bluford Wilson and Yaryan in the penitentiary and keep them there.

During a storm of wind occurring at Sidney, Australia, September 10th, in a gust lasting one or two minutes, the wind traveled at the extraordinary velocity of 135 miles per hour. During 12 minutes the wind passed the Observatory at the rate of 112 miles per hour. The measurement was made by Robinson's cup-anemometer.

The tenacity of vegetable life is singularly proved by the fact that poppy seeds dug from the old mines of the Greeks, where they had lain dormant for two thousand years, have suddenly grown up and borne a crop of plants with a beautiful yellow flower, of a kind unknown in modern botany; but which is described by Pliny and others as a frequent flower in ancient Greece.

One of the Democratic arguments for the throwing out of Louisiana's vote is that, by the statutes of Louisiana, the Wells Returning Board had no authority or power to canvass the vote for Presidential Electors, but that the Canvassing Board charged by the State law with this duty consists of the Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney General and a District Judge, or any two of them with the Governor; that, therefore, the whole action of the Wells Board, so far as it relates to Presidential Electors, was a usurpation of power and without authority of law.

Centaur Liniments!

One Kind for the Human Family,

The other for Horses & Animals.

These Liniments are simply the wonder of the world. Their effects are little less than marvellous.

THE WHITE LINIMENT is for the human family. It will drive Rheumatism, Sciatica and Neuralgia from the system; cures Lumbago, Chilblains, Lock-jaw, Palsy, Itch, and most cutaneous eruptions; it extracts frost from frozen hands and feet, and the poison of bites and stings of venomous reptiles; it subdues swellings, and alleviates pain of every kind. When sprains or bruises occur, it is the most potent remedy ever discovered to heal the injured parts. The Centaur Liniment is used with great efficacy for Sore Throat, TOOTHACHE, CAKED BREASTS, Earache, and Weak Back. The following is but a sample of numerous testimonials:

"INDIANA HOME, JEFF. CO., IND., May 28, 1873.
"I think it my duty to inform you that I have suffered much with swollen feet and chords. A few bottles of Centaur Liniment has done the work for me. I have not been free from these swellings in eight years. Now I am perfectly well. The Liniment ought to be applied warm. BENJAMIN BROWN."

The proof is in the trial. It is reliable, it is handy, it is cheap, and every family should have the White Centaur Liniment.

THE YELLOW CENTAUR LINIMENT is adapted to the tough muscles, cords and flesh of horses and animals. It has performed more wonderful cures, in three years, of Spavin, Strain, Wind-galls, Scratches, Sweeny, and general Lameness, than all other remedies in existence. Read what the great Expressmen say of it:

"NEW YORK, January, 1874.
"Every owner of horses should give the CENTAUR LINIMENT a trial. We consider it the best article ever used in our stables.
"H. MARSH, Sup't Adams Ex. Stables, N.Y.
"E. PULTZ, Sup't U. S. Ex. Stables, N.Y.
"A. S. OLIN, Sup't Nat. Ex. Stables, N. Y."

The best patrons of this Liniment are Farriers and Veterinary Surgeons, who are continually using some Liniment. It heals Galls, Wounds and Poll-evil, removes Swellings, and is worth millions of dollars annually to Farmers, Livery-men, Stock-growers, Sheep-raisers, and those having horses or cattle.

What a Farrier cannot do for $20 the Centaur Liniment will do at a trifling cost.

These Liniments are sold by all dealers throughout the country. They are warranted by the proprietors, and a bottle will be given to any Farrier or Physician who desires to test them.

Honey.

PITCHER'S CASTORIA is a complete substitute for Castor Oil, and is as pleasant to take as Honey. It is particularly adapted to Teethins and irritable children. It destroys worms, assimilates the food, regulates the Stomach, and cures Wind Colic. Few remedies are as efficacious for Feverishness, Croup, Worms and Whooping Cough. Castoria is a scientific and purely vegetable preparation, more effective than Castor Oil, and neither gags nor gripes. Prepared by Messrs. J. B. ROSE & Co., 46 Dey Street, New York, from the recipe of Samuel Pitcher, M.D., of Barnstable, Mass. fe1-oc5-jy27-2

The Testimony of the Whole World.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

"I had no appetite; Holloway's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvellous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Holloway has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave one of your Pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Holloway's Ointment cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Ointment behind the ears, and the noise has left."

"Send me five boxes of your Pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Pills by return mail, for Chills and Fever."

I have over 200 such testimonials as these, but want of space compells me to conclude.

For Cutaneous Disorders,

And all eruptions of the skin, this Ointment is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very roots of the evil.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS

Invariably cure the following diseases

Disorder of the Kidneys.

In all diseases affecting these organs, whether they secrete too much or too little water, or whether they be afflicted with stone or gravel or with aches and pains settled in the loins over the regions of the kidneys, these Pills should be taken according to the printed directions, and the Ointment should be well rubbed into the small of the back at bedtime. This treatment will give almost immediate relief when all other means have failed.

For Stomachs Out of Order.

No medicine will so effectually improve the tone of the stomach as these pills; they remove all acidity occasioned either by intemperance or improper diet. They reach the liver and reduce it to a healthy action; they are wonderfully efficacious in cases of spasm, in fact they never fail in curing all disorders of the liver and stomach.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are the best known in the world for the following diseases; Ague, Asthma, Billious Complaints, Blotches on the Skin, Bowels, Consumption, Debility, Dropsy, Dysentery, Erysipelas, Female Irregularities, Fevers of all kinds, Fits, Gout, Headache, Indigestion, Inflammation, Jaundice, Lumbago, Liver Complaints, Piles, Rheumatism, Retention of Urine; Scrofula or King's Evil, Sore Throat, Stone and Gravel, Ticdoloroux, Tumors, Ulcers, Worms of all kinds, Weakness from any cause, etc.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.

None are genuine unless the signature of J. HAYDODK, as agent for the United States, surrounds each box of Pills and Ointment. A handsome reward will be given to anyone rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

⁂ Sold at the manufactory of Prof. HOLLOWAY & Co., New York, and by all respectable druggists and dealers in medicine throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B. Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.
